

What could Robert Kett see from his vantage point on Kett's Heights in 1549? Wednesday 14th June, 6.30pm

Brian Ayers is returning to lead another historical tour starting at Bishop Bridge and walking along the river, past the Cow Tower and through the Great Hospital. He will be explaining the history of that part of Norwich's defences. Meet at Bishop Bridge. If you are intending to come please let us know so that we know what numbers to expect.

<http://www.kettsheights.co.uk/contact-us.html>

Come Yew In, Saturday 1st July, 2.30pm and 7.30pm

The Common Lot are returning to Kett's Heights with the inspiring tale of incomers to Norwich over the centuries. As usual with the Common Lot, this will involve humour, pathos and history all wrapped up in a music hall format with lots of singing.

Kett Society

The Kett Society based in Wymondham exists to research and promote the history of Robert Kett and his uprising. We now have reciprocal links with the Kett Society on our web sites.

<http://www.kettsociety.org.uk/>

Sunday tours

We are running our regular Sunday afternoon tours on the first Sunday of each month until October, excluding September when we will be running tours for Heritage Open Days on 7th-10th September. Meet inside the entrance gate at 2:30pm.

Practical Works on Kett's Heights

The Practical Works Group will continue its work all year, meeting every fortnight. The Group meets next on Wednesdays 31st May, 14th and 28th June from approx. 1000-1230. New volunteers are always welcome – there's lots to do at a variety of levels.

Recent activities

Keep up to date with work and events on Kett's Heights through the Gallery page on our website <http://www.kettsheights.co.uk/gallery.html>. Our Facebook page is the quickest way to get updates <https://www.facebook.com/kettsheights/>

Vanessa

Vanessa Trevelyan
Friends of Kett's Heights